Personal Giftedness

The expectation is that Music and Media would consume at least 75% of this role. The remainder is open to explore the gifting's and passions the successful candidate has from God. Our assumption in this position is that a love for God's people and creativity is at the heart of this leader. Therefore we want to give "empty space" to explore how God would use the candidate to grow His Kingdom at FCC. This may include (but not limited to) things like song writing, drama, video production, small groups, and artistic endeavors to win the lost for Christ. Each person has their own passions they can use in unique ways.

Accountability

The Music and Media Director is directly accountable to the Lead Pastor and may be asked to participate in other ministry's outside the above description if it is needed to further the Kingdom of God and help the team at FCC. We are all one team, caring for the FCC flock and working together to Glorify God.
